

I am strongly opposed to any attempt to weaken Indiana law related to the prohibition against unwanted phone calls to Indiana residents. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law should remain in force without the granting of exemptions, especially for "established business relationships."